

Listen

Saying
the unspeakable
between the lines

The sun, the stars
and the dream relate what happened before you were born
and what will happen
after you are gone

All it needs is to listen

Summer 2013

Dear Friends,
Dear former colleagues,
Dear former students,

It has been two months that

Heide Schmoller

has passed away.

Everyday life has taken over again, as it always does. And yet so many kind and compassionate messages of yours illustrate that somehow something has changed in our lives.

It is time I thanked you all for standing by Heide Schmoller in the last weeks and months of her life, for the many written tidings, the calls and visits and the devoted caring. Thank you for participating in the wake and for attending the service, thanks for the flowers and for the music, for helping at the funeral reception and for the substantial donations in her name to the "Friends of Waldorf Education" and the Paracelsus Hospital.

Matthias Schmoller
and all the family
