

ALLE ZEITEN - Lösung

Form the Tenses - Bilde die Zeiten

1. William is angry because you have lied to him.
2. It is unlikely but if he began to save money he would do himself a favour.
3. The Romans ruled a huge empire.
4. Tomorrow at noon we will be sitting on the bus.
5. When she finally woke up she realized that she had only slept.
6. They has slept until a moment ago.
7. It will rain soon, I hope.
8. When the banker opened the safe last Monday all the money had disappeared.
9. If you ask nicely I will give you my biscuit.
10. Jack has learned English and he still does so.
11. When I looked at my watch I realized that I had been working for the previous 4 hours non-stop.
12. Next 5th December we will have been together for three long years.
13. I think we will help you this once.
14. Tomorrow school starts at half past eight.
15. The river is going to rise soon: it has rained in the mountains.
16. When I checked on little Susie she was playing peacefully.
17. She goes to church on Sundays.
18. I promise: I will have finished the job by Wednesday a week.
19. Yesterday she was cleaning for ever.
20. "Why're you smirking at me? Stop that!"
21. Last night everything was as usual: I was doing the washing-up and he was doing nothing at all.
22. She has never visited London.
23. Next Thursday you are meeting my fiancé(e). Do not forget.
24. Before they partied they had decorated all the rooms.
25. This week Hannah is looking after the baby instead of her mother.
26. Last Sunday at 8:30 pm we were watching TV.
27. I am going to write a novel: I have planned it all out.
28. Since last Christmas they have been fighting constantly.
29. You would have done well if you had tried, but it is too late now.
30. "You'll grow up, my boy. Don't worry."