

Tenses - Lösung und Aufgabe (b)

Nenne alle möglichen Interpretationen der Zeiten (trotz fehlender Signalwörter und Kontext).

- 1.) He clears the table.
- 2.) She is going to tidy her bedroom.
- 3.) "Oh my gosh: No one's vacuumed."
- 4.) They cleaned the boots.
- 5.) We will be sorting our stuff.
- 6.) Everybody is brushing their teeth.
- 7.) My sister was doing her nails and Harry was combing his hair.
- 8.) Joe and Joanne have swept the floor.
- 9.) I will have washed my face.
- 10.) Mom does not mop the kitchen floor.
- 11.) If I were nice I would dust all the books.
- 12.) Uncle Freddy wipes the computer screen.
- 13.) Paul is coming to scrub the tiles.
- 14.) Molly had hung out the washing ...
- 15.) The kids are putting out the garbage.
- 16.) The maid had been making the beds ...
- 17.) I will polish the dinner table if I am back in time.
- 18.) She was ironing my shirts.
- 19.) "We won't dry the washing-up."
- 20.) I am going to wipe the glasses clean.
- 21.) The kids have not thrown away broken toys.
- 22.) Mother discarded my favourite shirts while I was renovating the family's summer cottage.
- 23.) They have been dumping tree branches and other garden waste.
- 24.) Will the gardener have been weeding the flower bed?
- 25.) We all were sorting out books.
- 26.) The rain washes the dirt in the streets away.
- 27.) She will pour away the old juice.
- 28.) The craftsmen will strip the walls of old paint.
- 29.) Mr Brown would have had to scrap his lovely old car if the mechanic had not been able to repair it.
- 30.) The city council has torn down the old factory.